

January Newsletter 2016

A very warm welcome back to school and best wishes for 2016.

New Baby

Congratulations to Marie Clune on the birth of a beautiful baby boy. Baby Diarmuid arrived just in time for Santa on the 23rd of December and we wish him a lifetime of good health and happiness.

Musical

2nd to 6th classes will go to Gort Community School on Wednesday to watch the secondary school production of West Side Story. It promises to be a very entertaining show and I'm sure many of our past pupils will be on stage. Each child can pay €5 to the class teacher before Wednesday.

Pupil's Safety

The safety of your children is a primary concern to us so the Board of Management would like to draw your attention to the following:

School begins in the Tubber Road at 8:50am and children can arrive from 8:40am.

School finishes at 2:30pm on the Tubber Rd.

School begins at 9:00am in the convent and children can arrive from 8:50am. School finishes at 2:40pm in the Convent.

No responsibility can be accepted for pupils arriving before this time. It is the responsibility of parents to ensure children are collected safely from school at 2:30pm and 2:40pm.

New Enrolments

Enrolment forms are now been taken for September 2016. If you have a child starting in Junior Infants or know of children in your area who may need a form please contact the school on 091-631627 and we will send the form to you. We will let you know when our Open Day is.

Dancing

Irish Dancing resumes with Louise Curran on Tuesday 12th of January. Please send €10 to the class teacher for 8 weeks dancing lessons.

Peace Proms

The Peace Proms takes place on Sunday the 31st of January in The Kingfisher NUIG. The children who are in the choir will travel by bus from Gort. We will send details about this later in the month. If you wish to attend the concert yourself please book your tickets online at www.peaceproms.com

Do This in Memory

The next Do This in Memory Mass for 1st Communion children is Sunday January the 24th at 12noon.
